

APA Facade Systems worked on the St. Joseph's National School Rathwire project with Larkin Aluminium installing our TB50 curtain wall system & ST70 windows and doors to this Kilcawley Construction development.

This new school development consisted of a 3089 m², 16 class-room national school complete with special needs unit.

The architectural design of this building was completed by Coady Architects.

Main Contractor:

Kilcawley Construction

Architect:

Coady Architects

System Partner:

Larkin Aluminium

System Used

TB50 Facade System

ST70 Window & Door System

