

The beautifully designed Aloft Dublin City hotel officially opened its doors in 2019.

Aloft, a branch of the renowned Marriott International brand was designed with the needs of the savvy, next-generation traveller in mind by Plus Architecture, with BAM Ireland managing the project. This eight-storey hotel has over 200 rooms. Its located in one of the most historic parts of Dublin, the Liberties.

APA Facade Systems worked with Season Master on this €40 million euro project, manufacturing our TB50 Facade System for them to expertly install. The modern and colourful facade of the Aloft hotel stands out in the historic area, making the new building a signature feature of the area.
